A CAUSE OF HEADACHE.

One Very Common Cause, Generally Overlooked

Headache is a symptom, an in'll with of Pler matter. However, for that form of headache

However, for that form of headhand called frontial header, path local of the error and in forehead the cause is now known to be estarth of the head and threat, when the headache is issued in brek of head and newk it is often musclifrom estarth of the stomand or love. At any rate catarth is the most common cause of such headaches and the cure of the headaches.

There is at present no treatment factoring the second of the catarth and offering a Stort's Catarth Tableta, a new it real temedy in tablet form, composed of antiception like weatpeld gualaced and choose the elimination of the catarthal pelon from the system through the astartal channels.
